

House Rules

1. No name-dropping. Leave your entitlement and status at the door.
2. Please respect our neighbours' property. Refrain from smoking or loitering outside.
3. Direct and severe eye contact is recommended for all patrons toasting.
4. No yelling, hollering, shouting, fighting, screaming, or other loud behaviour unless it is an attempt to warn fellow patrons or employees of impending doom or a police raid.
5. Feel free to work or play here in a manner consistent with other patrons' peaceful enjoyment.
6. Do not bring anyone unless you would leave that person alone in your home. You are responsible for the behaviour of your guests. This place is meant to be a home away from home for all patrons; do not be "that person".
7. We are here to serve and tell stories. If you would like to delve deeper into what you are drinking, what adorns the walls, and the history behind such things, feel free to ask questions.
8. We do not have a superior bathroom for clandestine indulgences. Take the hint, and refrain from bringing such activities into our establishment.
9. Exit the bar swiftly and quietly. People are endeavouring to sleep across the street and above us. Kindly finalise your travel plans and bid your farewells before departing the premises.

A surcharge of 10% applies on Sundays and 15% applies on public holidays.

At The Art Syndicate, we pride ourselves on exclusively showcasing local wines, beers, and spirits from all over NSW. Each region has unique qualities which manifest themselves in their own distinctive ways. For more information about a region or any of our selection, please do not hesitate to ask Lisa or Saxon!

Wine - Sparkling

	NV See Saw Organic Wines "Balance"	Nashdale,
12 / 62	Prosecco	Orange Region
	Monica Gray

With over 30 years experience, the family run business is becoming one of Australia's leading organic wine labels. This fresh wine screams lemon sherbet and freshly cut green apple.

	2016 Gallagher Wines "Blanc de Blanc"	Jeir,
23 / 130	Chardonnay	Canberra District
	Greg Gallagher

Making wine since the 1970s, Greg's Blanc de Blanc is a great example of his meticulous approach to winemaking. Made in the "traditional method", this current vintage was aged for 7 years and developed beautiful aromas of honeydew melon, buttery pastry and a creamy texture.

Wine - White

	2022 Brangayne of Orange
16 / 74	Riesling	Orange
	David Hoskins

Named after the character in Wagner's opera "Tristan and Isolde", Brangayne has been owned by the Hoskins family since the 1930s and was turned into a vineyard in 1994. With grapes from one of the highest and coldest grape districts in Australia, the wine shows generous aromas of lemon tart, orange blossom and honey.

	2023 The Little Wine Company	Broke,
13 / 60	Pecorino	Hunter Valley
	Suzanne and Ian Little

Suzanne and Ian, both from winemaking backgrounds, joined forces in 2000. With fruit from the only vineyard that grows Pecorino, they continue their pioneering role in using alternative varieties. The wine boasts with flavours of juicy pears, pink lady apple and preserved lemon, while flavours of pepper and fennel add complexity and texture.

14 / 67	2023 Tumblong Hills Chenin Blanc Simon Robertson	Gundagai
---------	--------------------------------------------------------	----------

Tumblong Hill's philosophy is all about thoughtful vineyard practices, respecting nature and working to protect the environment. Chenin Blanc is originally from France but has found perfect growing conditions in NSW with classic notes of honeysuckle, pear and quince.

18 / 87	2021 Wondalma Vineyard Chardonnay Stuart and Janine Barclay	Tumbarumba

Renowned for growing outstanding Chardonnay in Tumbarumba, this wine is from their own label. Fresh flavours of white peaches and grapefruit are complemented by creamy and flinty notes from gentle oak ageing.

25 / 120	2023 Origines "Focus" Chardonnay Alex Beckett and Jan Taborsky	Orange

Meeting in the Master of Wine program, the winemakers connected over their passion for small-batch, terroir driven wine. The thoughtful approach to wine-making and long oak maturation created a layered, ever evolving wine with aromas of lemon curd, fresh yellow apple and baking spices.

23 / 115	2021 De Salis Wines "Fume Blanc" Sauvignon Blanc Charlie and Mitch Svenson	Nashdale, Orange region
----------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------

Founded by (then) Microbiologist Charlie Svenson, De Salis wines began in the 1990s as a garagiste winery. Today it's led by Charlie's son Mitch. This barrel aged wine shows aromas of lime skin, fruit salad, Pavlova and notes of vanilla, salted caramel and fine chalkiness.

27 / 130	2014 Silkman Wines "Blackberry" Semillon Liz Silkman	Pokolbin, Hunter Valley
----------	------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------

Being named Halliday Winemaker of the Year 2025, Liz's vision is to make some of the best small batch contemporary versions of traditional Hunter varieties. This aged Semillon shows intense flavours of preserved lemon, chamomile and mouthcoating notes of crème brulee and green almonds.

Wine - Amber

17 / 84	2021 Topper's Mountain Wines "Hill of Dreams" Sauvignon Blanc, Verdejo, Grüner Veltliner Mark and Stephanie Kirkby	New England
---------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------

High up above 900m, the ten hectare vineyard specialises in alternative varieties. The Hill of Dreams is a place of diversity and experimentation. The different varieties are spontaneously fermented on their skins for texture and fragrant notes of jalapeno, preserved lemon and gooseberry compote.

Wine - Rosé

14 / 67	2023 Sapling Yard "The Four Pinots" Gris, Noir, Meunier, Blanc Carla Rodeghiero	Tumbarumba and Braidwood
---------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------

Sapling Yard was founded in 2008 when Carla planted her own vineyard in Braidwood at 650 metres above sea level. The blend of Pinots makes an intriguing wine full of depth and flavours of pink grapefruit, raspberry coulis and red apple skin.

17 / 85	2022 Nashdale Lane "Legacy Rosé" Shiraz Tanya and Nick Segger	Nashdale, Orange region
---------	---------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------

The Legacy series is all about a patient winemaking approach. Using the heavier grape pressings and aged in seasoned oak for 10 months, this richer style is for everyone enjoying a chilled red. This wine shows aromas of wild strawberries, raspberries and exotic spices leading to a smooth textured finish.

Wine - Red

15 / 78 2023 Renzaglia Wines "Nuovo di Renzo"
Sangiovese, Graciano, Merlot, Multiregional NSW
Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon
Sam Renzaglia

The Renzaglia family have been stewards of the Their "di Renzo" label explores unique styles through innovative and creative winemaking techniques. This chilled red is light, fresh and savoury.

17 / 83 2023 Sabi Wabi "Nomu"
Syrah Hunter Valley Region
Peta Kotz

Peta, a Young Gun Of Wine 2022 - Winemaker's Choice winner, is producing small batch, low-intervention wines. The "Nomu" was

18 / 90 2022 Rowlee Wines "Single Vineyard"
Pinot Noir Nashdale,
Nicole Samodol and James Manny Orange region

Handpicking from an eight-hectare vineyard situated on Orange's ancient volcanic soils, the team at Rowlee focus on small batch winemaking with sustainable practices. Layers of crunchy red fruit with notes of cinnamon and liquorice add to the complexity and depth of the wine.

15 / 72 2021 Vinifera Organic Wines
Garnacha Mudgee
Sam McKendry

The McKendry family has been growing grapes organically since 2008, becoming certified organic in 2013. A ripe fruit spectrum of pomegranate, cherry, and raspberry is perfectly harmonizing with aromas of baking spices and cedar from oak ageing.

Wine - Red (continued)

16 / 82	2017 Quilty Wines "Black Thimble" Shiraz Des Quilty	Mudgee Region

Des Quilty, known for making age worthy, single parcel reds, has been working as a viticulturist for 20 years. The wine is from a tiny plot of hand-picked grapes from low-yielding vines on the Southern edge of Mudgee. This beautifully aged Shiraz shows aromas of perfectly ripe blackberry and dried currant, dark chocolate shavings and displays a long-lasting, savoury finish.

23 / 110	2010 Wimbairi Wines "First Vines" Cabernet, Merlot Sarah and Scott Gledhill	Murrumbateman, Canberra District
----------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------

Scott and Sarah are dedicated to showcasing the distinctive character of each wine they make. Produced solely from first vines planted 1988, this special release has intense flavours of plum and macerated dark berries with elegant minty overtones. Only three barrels were made.

Wine - Sweet

12 / 80	2022 Piggs Peake "I Swine" Semillon, Pedro Ximenez Steve Langham	Pokolbin, Hunter Valley
---------	------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------

Founded in 1998, piggs peake is known for experimenting with a plethora of wine styles. Emulating the style of an "Icewine", the team use reverse osmosis, a technology to concentrate the grape juice and increase both sugar and acid levels. The wine has intense aromas of lemon sorbet, tropical fruit punch and young honey with a mouthcoating sweetness and ripe stone fruit on the palate.

Wine - Non-alcoholic

12 / 55	NV Altina "Finger Lime" Sauvignon Blanc Christina Delay and Alan Tse Ca	Mitchell, Canberra District
---------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------

In 2018, Christina and Alan went on a mission to craft complex drinks combining premium Australian wine with botanicals. Their de-alcoholised Sauvignon Blanc features aromas of white nectarine, fresh cucumber, and notes of pepper and lemon grass.
